Kathy is a devoted peace activist, three times for the Nobel Peace Voices in the Wilderness and is for Creative Nonviolence. She delegations to Iraq, Pakistan, medicine, relief and comfort to distress. Kathy has spent time in pacifist and author who was nominated Prize. She was a founding member of currently a co-coordinator of Voices has been part of more than 70 Afghanistan and Gaza bringing people in areas of extreme conflict and federal prison for planting corn on a nuclear missile silo site and for crossing the line at Fort Benning's military training school.

Studs Terkel, remarking on her travels and passion for peace, writes, "Her hosts have been the men, women and children whose homes have been under constant fire. Her pilgrimages have one purpose: to reveal the lives of war's innocent victims." She and her companions embrace the belief that nonviolence necessarily involves simplicity, service, sharing of resources and nonviolent direct action in resistance to war oppression.
